Continuing Education

The Career Development workshop provides 6 CE units/credit hours; the 16PF Qualification course provides 12 CE units/credit hours.

IPAT is an approved sponsor of continuing education by the American Psychological Association (APA), the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI), the International Society for Performance Improvement (ISPI), and the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC). In addition, the National Career Development Association (NCDAA) recognizes and accepts these NBCC-approved CEUs. We maintain responsibility for the program and all content.

In-house Training

If the above dates don't fit your schedule, or the course content is not exactly what you need, hosting an IPAT training event is the way to go. We'll come to your organization and, if desired, we'll tailor the course content to fit the needs of your group. Our tailored workshops have been a success in many diverse organizations – from large government financial institutions to leaders in the software and communication industries.

In-house training has two additional benefits -- no travel costs and fewer out-of-office hours for attendees!
